

Unit 2 Population FRQ

Percentage of older people in the UK 1985, 2010, 2035

Question 1

- Identify the trend depicted in the chart.
- Identify at least one other country with a similar trend.
- Identify and explain two reasons that the average population age is increasing in developed countries.
- Identify and explain one social consequence that countries face as their populations age.
- Identify and explain one economic consequence that countries face as their populations age.
- Identify and explain one pronatalist population policy a country has passed in the developed world to address the issue of aging populations.
- Discuss how immigration policies in the developed world have changed as a result of low birth rates and aging populations.